

Do you love Job's Daughters International? Do you enjoy working with the Daughters and Bethels throughout the state? Are you ready to promote Job's Daughters around the state? If you answered yes to these questions, then the brand new position of Indiana Daughter Promotion Coordinator is for you!

Simply fill out the attached form, and you may be chosen for this honorary position. Here are the expectations for the Indiana Daughter Promotion Coordinator:

1. Work with the State Promotion Chairmen to plan at least one (1) statewide promotion event.
2. Communicate with Bethels encouraging promotion activities. This could be done through visiting Bethels, emails, Facebook, the Bethel News and/or your own newsletter.
3. Create a program or contest to encourage promotion at the Bethel level.
4. Write a report to be included in the preprinted Grand Guardian Council reports at Grand Session.
5. Be willing to promote Job's Daughter International by speaking to Masonic and other organizations when asked.
6. Work with the Grand Bethel Honored Queen in helping to plan promotion parties or events when requested.
